Feline veterinarian Christina Larsen, DVM joins The Cat Practice in Birmingham Hospital will host Meet & Greet with Larsen on July 19

Birmingham Michigan – July 7, 2014 – Feline veterinarian Christina Larsen, DVM, has joined The Cat Practice in Birmingham. The Cat Practice, Michigan’s first cats-only veterinary hospital, provides advanced preventive and medical care with an emphasis on early detection to help cats live longer, better and healthier lives.

Larsen provides all aspects of feline care with a special interest in feline behavior and emotional wellbeing, gastrointestinal diseases and aging /geriatrics. She takes an individualized approach to feline care that includes recognizing breed-specific health issues, identifying cats at high risk for health concerns and helping cat families spot health issues early.

“A cat’s family is more likely to spot changes in their cat if they know what to look for,” Larsen says. “An important part of veterinary medicine is helping families recognize signs of pain, changes in eating habits and other behaviors.”

Prior to joining The Cat Practice, Larsen externed at Memorial Cat Hospital in Houston and Alamo Feline Health Center in San Antonio.

Christina Larsen, DVM

She holds a doctor of veterinary medicine and master of science in veterinary science from Tuskegee University in Alabama, and bachelor of science in agriculture and animal science from McNeese State University in Louisiana. Larsen is also certified in small animal CPR and is a member of the American Association of Feline Practitioners and American Veterinary Dental Society.

The Cat Practice will host a Meet & Greet with Larsen Saturday, July 19 from 9 .m. to noon. All cat lovers are welcome.

Larsen shares her home with three cats: Midnight, a Bombay; Charlie, an orange tabby and Pickles, a Siamese, and a Congo African Grey parrot named Amy. When she is not caring for felines, Larsen enjoys designing and making unique kitty apparel.

The Cat Practice, at 875 South Worth in Birmingham, cares for feline purebred and mixed breeds from around southeastern Michigan. For information go to www.thecatpracticepc.com or call 248-540-3390.
